

BRUSSELS INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

FILM REGISTRATION RULES

The 9th edition of the Brussels International Film Festival (FIFB) will take place from December 03 to 07, 2024 in Dakar to the delight of lovers of the 7th art.

The theme of the FIFB has changed its theme to become an international travelling festival focused on pan-African cinema.

The FIFB favours unreleased films, African, European and world premieres as well as new generations of filmmakers.

The Brussels International Film Festival offers 3 official competitions :

- The International Competition (Feature and Short Fiction Films)
- The documentary competition
- The youth film competition (films directed by students)

Competition prizes

The FIFB will have the privilege of presenting the following prizes to the nominees:

The Grand Prix of the festival

The Best Director Award

The Best Actor Award

The Best Actress Award

The award for Best Documentary

The prize for the best film for young people

The Best Short Film Award

Festival registration requirements:

Any feature-length, medium-length or short film completed after December 1, 2023 can participate in the competition.

The films presented must be African, Belgian, European or world premieres.

- Registration required via the online form on the www.fifb.be/inscrire_un_film website
- The registration will only be taken into account after receipt of the download link and payment.
- The submission of the film must be accompanied by the above documentation.

- A synopsis in FR and EN
- A press kit
- A poster in High Definition
- A trailer or link to the trailer
- Photos of the film in JPG
- Photos in JPG by the director and the main actor
- A biography and filmography of the director

The dialogues of the film in French, in English only for films that are not subtitled.

Registration start date: June 13, 2024

Registration deadline : July 31, 2024

If your film is selected:

A letter will be sent to you to this effect.

Selected films must be sent by download link or DCP no later than: Friday, November 8, 2024.

Registration fees :

- For short films (duration less than 15 minutes), the registration is set at 15€
- For long films (duration greater than or equal to 60 minutes), the registration fee is € 30€
- For documentary films (duration greater than or equal to 60 minutes), the registration fee is € 25€
- For young films (duration less than 15 minutes) registration will be free.

All payments must be made by bank transfer to the festival's account:

FIFB Bank Account: BE83 0017 4721 4015

BIC: GEBABEBB

Publications

The data and photos provided will be used in various publications (catalogues, website, Facebook, Instagram,...)

Media and television:

The rights holders of the films cede to the festival without compensation the right to reproduce the photographs, extracts (less than 3 minutes for feature films, 5 to 10 minutes for short films) of their films for distribution in the festival's publication, in the press, on television channels, the festival's website and its social networks.

Participation in the festival implies unreserved acceptance of the terms of these regulations.